THE NEWS.

—Rich gold fields, it is reported, have been discovered on the northern frontiers of Norway and Russia. The severity of the climate will, however, prevent the placers from being worked by emigrants from Southern and Middle Europe.

—Carleton's next sensational brochure will be a rich satirical pamphlet by C. H. Webb, on the extravagances, absurdities, sharp heels, wasp-waists, die-away airs and Grecian bends of the prettiest girls in New York. The title will be The Wickedest Woman in New York, and it will be full of comic illustrations.

—In San Domingo the financial condition of the country, it is stated, is becoming more and more hopelessly depressed every day. No business is done, the Government has no money, and it is doubtful if any support will be rendered to the proposed line of steamers to New York and New Orleans. The revolution was spreading.

—Gen. Cialdini, one of the most influential men in Italy, will, it is stated, visit Spain for the purpose of pressing the claims of the Duke of Aosta to the throne of Isabella. Amodeus, Duke of Aosta, is the second son of Victor Emmanuel, and is 23 years old. Gen. Cialdini was for many years in the service of Spain, and, it is asserted, will at present receive a cordial welcome.

—Last week a remarkable and successful blast was made at the Richmond, Va., granite quarry, now owned by a company in Philadelphia. One entire block of clear, beautiful granite, measuring 100 feet long, twenty-three feet thick, twenty feet wide, was thrown out from the solid mass of the quarry. This immense block contains 46,000 cubic feet, 8,280,000 pounds—or 3600 tons. This is probably the largest stone in one piece ever before quarried.

—A petition is in circulation in New England, requesting Congress to pass a statute declaring null and void all laws and ordinances of cities, towns and States, which tax commerce in the shape of harbor tonnage, port warden fees, oyster tonnage tax, State hospital tax, one per cent. gross amount of freight and quarantine fees—all of which, it is declared, have been enforced contrary to the laws of the United States for the regulation of commerce.

—The earthquake in Ireland on October 24th created the most intense excitement in the city of Cork, although the shocks were not received in the vicinity or that place. The effects of the internal commotion of the earth were felt at Newtown, within a few miles of Mallow and Kanturk. The shocks were accompanied with a loud, rumbling noise, and an oscillation of the earth. Houses were shaken from their foundations, and in some instances the furniture was thrown down and broken. The shocks passed from north to south. At the time the wind was blowing a hurricane.

—The attempt to assassinate the Viceroy of Egypt, it is now reported was a hoax started for the purpose of creating a demonstration of good will towards the Viceroy or of implicating persons not in high favor with the government. The attempt was made on September 22d in Alexandria, and nothing was known of the matter by the public until October 2d, when Cairo was alleged to be the place. No one in the densely crowded streets saw the bomb fall, and the Prefect of Police on examining the premises was met by two of the subordinates, who refused him admission. These circumstances, it is alleged, go to prove that the reported attempt was contrived by the government.

—A dispatch from Utica, N. Y., of the 11th says: The primary convention of the Episcopal Church assembled this morning in Grace Church, Rev. Van Duser, Rector. After preliminary religious exercise, Bishop Cox delivered an able sermon. At the afternoon session, there was special order at 3 o'clock for the choice of a Bishop for the new diocese. The leading candidates for the position were Dr. Littlejohn, of Brooklyn, Rev. Dr. Van Duser, of Utica, and Rev. Leeds, of Baltimore. After five ballots, the final choice of the Convention was Rev. Dr. Littlejohn. This evening the members of the Convention are having a grand reception at the Butterfield House.

—The Picayune, of Wednesday, has a lengthy and interesting account of the dedication ceremonies attending the opening of the new Odd Fellows' Hall, by Prof. Dimitry. It was a grand affair, participated in by all the Odd Fellows of New Orleans, and delegates from many other cities. The new hall is described by the Picayune, "though not so large a one as the old, more complete in many respects. The ballroom was illuminated Tuesday evening for the first time. Notwithstanding the immense center chandelier was wanting, there was a flood of light from the elegantly designed bronze brackets on either side which lighted up the room beautifully. The ladies' parlor, dressing room, masking room, etc., are arranged much more nicely in the new hall than they were in the old—the first two having entrances leading directly from the hall room, so that ladies can enter into the hall room, or retire from it without an escort, whenever they may so desire."

—Letters from Hayti, dated October 27, state that President Salnave, with his two war steamers, left Port-au-Prince on October 25, to proceed to attack several southern ports still held by the revolutionists. The rebels are bravely defending themselves, but their case is reported to be hopeless. The government buys up all the arrivals at Port-au-Prince of American provisions, and pays for the same in coffee, thus monopolizing the trade. The provisions are retailed to citizens at forty per cent. below the prices charged by foreign dealers, and in consequence trade is merely nominal. An American man-of-war, it is asserted, is needed at Port-au-Prince to protect American interests. The gunboat Alexandre Petion was slightly damaged in the bombardment of Jeremie. Four counterfeiters of Haytien paper money had been captured by the police. The condition of finances, according to the report of the Minister, has decidedly improved. Generals Lynch and Montes, of the insurgent army, have been arrested by the other rebel commanders, and sent under guard to St. Mare.

—The Picayune of Wednesday has the following brief news: The arrival on Monday of the Georgia stable, and last evening of the Missouri stable, induces us to commence our promised list of horses as they arrived, to which we shall add as each stable reaches the city, such additions as will make it reach—if not like Banquo's issue to the crack of doom—still so long as to astonish the oldest turfman in Louisiana. In a few days now, we may see these horses in their gay and parti-colored clothing, moving at their exercise in the lazy walk—the easy canter—the rapid run and the rattling brush down the quarter stretch, until their hundred hoofs will fill the air with a melody that is not unmusical to turfmen's ears nor harsh in sound to ours.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN TENNESSEE.

Review of Operations for 1868.

STATE OF TENNESSEE,
ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,
NASHVILLE, TENN., October 10, 1868.

Maj.-Gen. O. O. Howard, Commissioner Bureau R., F. & A. L., Washington, D. C.:

General: I have the honor to submit the following report of the operations of the Bureau in Tennessee for the year ending September 30, 1868:

EDUCATION.

The most important work of the Bureau during the past year has been the erection and repair of school buildings, the employment of teachers and the promotion of education.

All school houses for colored children in this State are provided by the Bureau, either in the manner described, or by renting, though the Benevolent Societies hold many of them, and have assisted in building some of them. The colored people themselves have given but little aid in this work. They would doubtless have done more, if they had not, by the teaching of politicians and the practice of their friends, the Benevolent Societies and the Bureau, have been led to believe that all good things were their due, and should be free.

There were in operation, in November, 1867, ninety-two day schools, ten night schools; total, 102.

In June, 1868, 114 day schools and six night schools; total, 120. Gain during the year, eighteen schools.

There were enrolled, in November, 1867, 6172 pupils; in June, 1868, 8246 pupils; gain, 2074 pupils.

There were engaged, in November, 1867, 88 white teachers and 47 colored teachers—total, 135; in June, 1868, 112 white teachers and 49 colored teachers—total, 161; gain, 26 teachers. These teachers were supported as follows:

By the A. M. A. and W. F. A. C. Societies, 25 white and 3 colored teachers.

By the F. A. S. of the M. E. Church, nine white teachers.

By the A. F. W. C., New York, Chicago and Pittsburg, nine white and one colored.

By the Old School Presbyterian Mission, eight white teachers. Garnet League Colored Aid Society, four colored teachers.

By the American Baptist Home Society, three whites and one colored; Protestant Episcopal Church, one white teacher; Public City Board of Education, six white and two colored; by colored people in private schools, seven white and nineteen colored; by the Freedmen's Bureau, twenty-seven white and nineteen colored teachers.

In November, 1867, the Bureau provided fifteen school buildings; in June, 1868, seventy two school buildings.

In November, 1867, the estimated contribution of the colored people towards their schools was $755 75; in June, 1868, had been $944 70.

The expenditures by the Bureau for rents and repairs average from $2000 to $3000 per month. The total expenditures for these schools by all parties is from $4000 to $6000 per month.

It is believed that a few schools have been put in operation under the State School Law, and that the teachers are in part paid out of the school fund collected from the people of the State. But I have no reliable information on this subject.

The School Law, as well as all laws in this State, is difficult to execute in consequence of the disfranchisement of the people who have to pay the greater portion of the taxes that support the schools. The opposition to schools for colored children has gradually yielded, till practically there is no opposition at all now. During the year a Mr. Newton, a teacher at Somerville, Tenn., was cruelly beaten and stoned by a party of boys, who threatened to kill him.

At my request, troops were sent there by Major-General George H. Thomas, and Mr. Newton resumed his school.

At Sainsbury, Mr. Frost, a teacher, was cruelly abused and punished at night by a disguised party of men. At Pocahontas, Mr. W. S. Holly was maltreated in the same manner. The schoolhouses at Wartrace, at Carthage, and a few others were burned down by unknown parties. But for several months past all such outrages have ceased.

Whether the State law should be carried into effect generally, or not, it is certain that in one way or another, the colored people will have a fair share of schools, as teaching is the principal field open to the labors of such colored persons as have the advantages of education, both in the North and South.

RATIONS ISSUED.

No rations have been issued to colored people or whites during the past year, except to the sick in hospital at Nashville, and to the inmates of the Orphan Asylum at Memphis; and excepting a small quantity of bacon and meal, costing $394 85, issued to destitute people at Memphis, in February and March. This was issued to 43 whites and 257 colored people. The quantity issued was 2,400 pounds of bacon, and 4000 pounds of meal.

To the Orphan Asylum at Memphis were issued 8,939½ rations, costing $2029 71.

To the hospital at Nashville were issued 16,865 rations, costing $3538 27.

Total cost of rations issued to all parties, $5962 83.

HOSPITAL.

There has been but one hospital maintained by the Bureau during the past year, Dr. Robt. McNeilly in charge.

The number of cases treated is as follows: 666 male adults, 1030 female adults, 249 male children, and 240 female children. Total, 2,125. Deaths in hospital, 17 male adults, 18 female adults, 3 male children, and 2 female children. Total, 40.

BOUNTY CLAIMS.

A very important branch of the labor of the Bureau has been the collecting and disbursing of bounty claims to colored soldiers and their widows and heirs. The amount disbursed by Mr. J. B. Coons, at Nashville, during the year is $83,402 03.

I regret that I have not at present the data showing the amount disbursed at other points in the State. A supplementary statement will be prepared, embracing this information, which I desire to be considered a part of this report. It is estimated that near one million of dollars has been paid in bounty claims, by the officers and agents of this Bureau, in Tennessee, during the year.

ABANDONED LANDS.

On hand last report, 8007 acres, eighty-four farms, 103 pieces of town property and five mills.

Restored during the year, 7250½ acres, twenty-nine farms, sixty-two pieces of town property.

On hand September 30, 1868, 755½ acres, fifty-five farms, forty-one pieces of town property and five mills.

None of this property is, or has been, useful to the Bureau or freedmen, and I would recommend that it all be dropped from the papers of the Bureau.

TRANSPORTATION.

The following statement shows the number of persons transported at the expense of the government during the year: 54 refugees, 107 freedmen; total, 162.

DISBURSEMENTS.

CONDITION OF THE COUNTRY.

About the close of the year 1867 the organization of the secret society known as the Ku-Klux took place. On the 14th of January, 1868, I addressed a communication to the Governor of the State, calling his attention to the danger of permitting this society to continue its operations. I also addressed letters of the same purport to yourself, and to Maj.-Gen. Thomas, commanding the Department of the Cumberland.

The number of outrages perpetrated by this band, or by desperadoes apparently belonging to it, was very great. The intimidation of the colored people seemed to be its object, to effect which colored men were frequently flogged unmercifully, and occasionally were killed. These outrages, and occasional efforts of the colored men to resist them, have given several counties the character of lawless and disorderly communities. My monthly reports show in detail the operations of the Ku-Klux Klan, and the numerous outrages perpetrated on the colored people. I will not burden this report with a repetition of those accounts, but refer you to my monthly reports.

At present, quiet and order prevail throughout the State. The crops seem to be good, which is the best evidence that the colored people in the country have labored faithfully.

The power of the Bureau to administer justice having been withdrawn, the colored people have had to rely on the civil authorities to enforce their rights. In the large cities, and in East Tennessee, and occasionally in Middle and West Tennessee, justice has been impartially administered in the matters arising out of contracts. Still the enforcement of the laws in criminal cases has been very imperfect.

Many of the killed were freedmen, and some of the murderers also. A detailed report on this subject was made to Gen. Thomas, commanding the department, at his request.

Considering that the State has provided by law for the education of colored children, and the temptation not to put the law in full force so long as the United States Government contributes so liberally of its money toward the support of education; and considering the fact that there will be but few claims to pay hereafter, I have no hesitation in recommending that the Bureau be withdrawn from the State as early as the 1st of January next.

I am, General, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
[signed] W. T. CARLIN,
Brevet Maj. Gen. U. S. A., Ass't Commissioner

THE NEWS.

"Initialed portemonaies" are among the latest things out.

"No presents will be received" was printed on the cards at a recent Cleveland wedding.

Very pretty and stylish walking suits are now made of tartan cloth—a thick and showy material.

All the fashion plates indicate tight pantaloons—tighter, than we have had them for years past.

Large monogram handkerchiefs are now in fashion among young gentlemen. They are more for show than for use.

Light shot silks and glace silks have come into fashion again this season, and will be much worn, trimmed with white lace.

A panelor is divided into three parts—a steel frame, an under-puff of starched calico, and an over-puff of silk, velvet or cashmere. Such are the constituent members of the celebrated Grecian bend.

The billiard match between Carmo and Rudolphe has been positively arranged, and will come off—the French game on Wednesday, on the Brunswick table, and the American game on Thursday, on a Phelan table. The opinion of those posted seems to favor Rudolphe. The games are to be played in Chicago.

Smokers will grieve over the news from Cuba. The tobacco crop for 1868, it is reported, will be twenty five per cent. less than that of last year, while the price will be higher in the same proportion. The quantity of tobacco shipped from Havana since the 1st of January, 1868, was about 4,000,000 pounds, of which about 2,70 ,000 pounds were brought to the United States.

Gen. Horace Brooks, Colonel of the Fourth Artillery, who succeeds Gen. Canby in command at Washington, is the son of Mrs. Maria L Brooks—"Maria del Occidente," the sweetest and most impassioned of poets, according to Southey. Gen. Brooks distinguished himself in the grade of Captain, during the Mexican war.

The French exile, Felix Pyat has been giving the Spanish people advice. He urges them to establish a Republic after the plan of the United States. He says a people who can not get rid of royalty fall into a state of decadence; they can produce only Lafayettes, or Esparteros, or Bonapartes or Cromwells; never Washingtons. And he says: "Democracy is order, because it is justice. The Republic is peace. A Republic in Spain is peace in Europe and the end of the empire in France."

A company is about to be established in London for the publication of a newspaper intended to rival the Times. All the capital is not yet subscribed, and advertisements have been issued asking subscriptions from literary gentlemen to bonds of $400 each in aid of the enterprise. According to the plan proposed, the names of the writers are to be appended to the articles, and this appeal is made to the vanity of persons who like to see themselves in print.

The submarine tunnel between England and France has been the subject of an address presented to the emperor Napoleon III., by one hundred English noblemen, members of Parliament and other influential men. The Emperor is asked to support the project as an eminently desirable work, and necessary to facilitate the social intercourse of the countries, and to develop their trade and commerce. The realization of the enterprise, it is stated, would add to his memorable example of concord to other nations.

Horace Greeley has an eye on Randall's place as Postmaster General. His overwhelming defeat in the race for Register (he polled only 3,000 votes, against 83,000 for Judge Connolly) has disgusted him with seeking office from the people, and he thinks his services in the campaign entitle him to a place in the Cabinet. His friends promise to work for him, and he has some hope of getting the appointment. Postal reform is one of his hobbies, and if he gets Randall's place he will ride it to death.

James Caird, an English authority of acknowledged intelligence and reliability, has written a letter recently on the English harvest of 1868, in which he estimates that the wheat crop will be nearly equal to that of 1864, but not of so good quality as that of 1863. The yield has been at the rate of 32 bushels per acre, or five bushels above the yearly average. He estimates that England will pay $75,000,000 less for foreign wheat than last year but says that there is a deficiency of $50 000,000 in the value of barley and oats, while the hay and green crops were nearly annihilated by the protracted drought. In the growth of potatoes there is an increase of 80,000 acres, and the crop will be of an average character.

The Albany (Ga.) News of a late date says: The contract for clearing, grubbing and grading the Georgia and Florida Railroad was secured by our enterprising fellow-citizen, Col. William McClendon, who, we understand, has associated with him a number of gentlemen of equal energy and reliability, and they agree to finish the work from Thomasville to Albany in twelve months. The contract for the bridging was secured by G. W. Smith, of Cuthbert, a gentleman fully competent to carry it out with all the promptness required. Thus the company have put the whole line under contract, and with their determination to follow the grading with the track-laying, we may safely expect the whole road to be completed in time for the next crop.

The report of the Fifth Auditor of the Treasury for the last fiscal year ending June 30th, 1868, shows that the aggregate salaries paid to our consuls during the year, including losses in exchange, was $83,750; total receipts in full from the consulate, $45,175; showing a revenue from this source of $71,429. Our consular system was never self-supporting before the year 1866, since that time the net revenue has amounted to over $60,000 a year. The report also shows that the total expense of assessing the internal revenue tax throughout the country for that year was $1,181,179. The total amount paid to revenue and special agents during the year, including salaries and expenses, was $334 3. The total amount paid as coast fees in general revenue cases, and as rewards to informers, was $45,000. The total amount of taxes erroneously assessed and collected and refunded was $1,064,815

The Dominico Dulcey Garay, Marquis de Castell Florete, Lieutenant General in the Spanish army, and recently appointed Captain General of Cuba, was born in the city of Seides, Spain, in the year 1808. He descended from a titled family, chose a career of arms, and took an active part against the Carlists in the Spanish civil wars of thirty years agone. For personal bravery in defending the palace of the Queen he was made gentleman of the bed chamber in 1842, and Brigadier General of cavalry in 1847. For further services against the Carlists he was made Field Marshal in 1849, and subsequently held the post of Commandant of the Provinces of Seville and Zaragoza, etc., together with other offices of trust and responsibility. In 1866 he was appointed Captain General of Cuba, but held the position only for a brief period, being succeeded by the present Captain General, Lesaundi. He is an aristocrat to the marrow, and a severe disciplinarian; proud, haughty and ugly.

The Austrian Government, in evacuating the Italian provinces, agreed to restore the various pictures and objects of art and antiquity, that had previously been removed by the prince who had ceded the territory to Austria for a pecuniary equivalent. At first the Austrians exhibited some reluctance to carry out the agreement, but in consequence of the expostulations of the Italian Government those works of art are now being sent back. The Duke of Modena, it is stated, has just restored to Italy a most valuable collection of coins and medals, 14,000 in number. In this great collection, Cavedoni, the first numismatic scholar of Italy, found the materials for a great variety of essays and dissertations, published by him during his long life, and which are now to be collected and republished at the expense of the Italian Government.

COL. D. C. CROSS.

In our local column this morning will be found "a card" from Col. DAVID C. CROSS, in reply to one that appeared in our columns of yesterday, from one JAS W. LANDRUM. It is due to ourselves, to Col. CROSS, and to the public, that we should explain that we were imposed upon by LANDRUM, and that in that way his card found its way into our columns, much to our surprise, chagrin and mortification. We are unwilling that our columns shall at any time, or by any persons, be made the vehicle of personal abuse or attack, as we do not wish to so far encourage a species of misconduct that is fast falling into dessuetude But in this case it is an especial source of regret, as Col. CROSS is our personal friend, and is a man whose character for veracity and worth has stood the test of thirty years in this neighborhood. We regret the affair, and hope that wherever the card of LANDRUM may be copied the rejoinder of Col. CROSS, whom we endorse as a man of honor, will also find a place in refutation.

MUCH NEEDED.

While we are bidding for immigrant and urging the beauties of our scenery and climate, the fertility of our soil and the variety of our productions, to lure the men of the North and Northwest, would it not be well for our landed proprietors to pave the way for an influx of these thrifty and industrious people by advertising their lands in small farms of forty, eighty, and one hundred and twenty acres, making known their location, boundaries, price and condition. Except such general information as they may and do receive through the Southern press, the people North of us have no data of this character upon which to predicate a movement, even of inquiry. Let it be once known, by positive announcement to that effect, that lands can be purchased along any of our railroads, and contiguous to a market, and there will be what now is seldom ever heard of, purchasers with cash to pay for what they buy, and enough to spare to start themselves in the race of prosperity.

We have suggested that the railroads should interest themselves in this important matter of immigration, and we think that landholders should also interest themselves, and prepare for the new population, by subdividing their lands and advertising their farms to the best advantage.

CUBA.

The telegraph has advised our readers that in New York there is an imposing organization of officers and soldiers of the late armies of the North and South, in full sympathy with those of the people of Cuba who have revolted against the Spanish authority and pronounced for independence. We have also been informed by telegraph that many of the men of this organization, despite the threats of the garrote by LERSUNDI (the Governor-General) have left New York and are now on their way to the "ever faithful isle." The World has persistently stated the existence of such a body and that they have such purpose in view, and now we learn from the New Orleans Times of Thursday that the real headquarters of the movement are in that city, that Gen. HENNINGSEN, of Nicaragua fame, is not he leader, and that 3000 of the men enlisted are expected to move within the next two weeks. Meanwhile there is an unaccountable absence from New Orleans of certain well-known parties, deemed in sympathy with the movement, and an equally unaccountable indifference and want of excitement upon the part of the restless class of a population notoriously in sympathy with the patriots of Cuba. And the Times further hints at the employment of two monitors, recently purchased from the United States ostensibly for the Peruvian government. But we will not stop to group all the rumors that are flying about in both cities, and throughout the country. We have given enough, with what has already found its way to our telegraphic columns, to satisfy our readers that "where there is so much smoke there must be some fire."

From Cuba we learn that all the arms and ammunition on sale in Havana were, last week, purchased, and so secretly as to defy the detective powers of the secret police to find out the purchasers, which, together with the arrest of prominent citizens of the place, and a frustrated release of the prisoners in the carcel, goes to prove that the representations of satisfaction by the Habaneros with the existing Provisional Government of Spain are not well founded, but that on the contrary there is a ripeness and readiness on their part to precipitate the conflict, that indicates a concert of purpose at least with the insurrectionists now in possession of the Eastern District. This also proves the general unreliability of the dispatches emanating under the direction of the Spanish officials for general dissemination through the United States, and that ere many days have passed, unless the power of the United States intervenes, we may look for a "pronuncIamento" only less startling than that which advised the world that ISABELLA had been dethroned.

THE MONEY PANIC.

From the Tuesday issue of the Daily Bulletin of New York, a purely commercial and generally reliable journal, we learn that the money market of that city "displays more ease, though yet in an unsettled condition, consequent upon the uncertainties of Mr. MCCULLOCH'S intentions in reference to the additional issue of the $44 000,000 in legal tenders. He has already authorized the issue of $10,-000,000 more of three per cent. certificates, to which action the easing up in money is attributable, but if he does not actually bring into use his greenback reserve, there is nothing to prevent a return to the panicky condition of last week. This is no unmeaning want, and we require more currency, since experience teaches that a few evil minded speculators are able to lock up a sufficient amount of legal tenders to create a panic such as we have already passed through. But it is not apparent in what manner we are to gain relief from the newly issued three per cents; the banks are needy, and already drained to the utmost in supplying the demands of their customers, and the daily and increasing wants from the West and South, and are in no condition to purchase the certificates, and if they are not sold no permanent ease will follow. Let him use them in buying back the bonds sold last month, and dispel a panic he assisted in producing. Money has been very generally seven per cent. in currency throughout Tuesday, though in some cases a commission has been paid."

In another article the same journal says that "Great diversity of opinion prevailed in New York respecting the interference of the Treasury Department with the regular market, but the immediate effect was as above stated—decidedly reassuring. There is a general feeling that the worst of the crisis has passed, and that an improvement may be looked for. Money, however, is likely to remain scarce for some time. Banks will be obliged to limit their accommodation to customers, and it is not improbable that a readjustment of the prices of commodities may be looked for as a consequence of the derangement of the markets. As for the causes of the stringency, they are to be partially attributed to the action of speculators who contrived to obtain control of a large amount of currency, and lock it up from general circulation. The complete success of this financial combination was frustrated by the self-protecting action of the banks in using certificates for the payment of balances; by the condition of the mercantile community, which fortunately required only a comparatively limited amount of accommodations for ordinary trade purposes, and, finally, by the resolution of the Secretary of the Treasury, to reissue greenbacks. It is probable that the Government will only be obliged to place a limited amount of currency in circulation, but the knowledge of the determination to resort to this action will produce a considerable effect. The history of the financial operations of the last six weeks contains important lessons and suggestions that may be valuable in determining the financial policy of the new administration of Gen. GRANT. The effects of a diminution of currency, by other than natural means, are apparent, and it is obvious that great caution must be exercised in this respect in case of the adoption of measures for a resumption of specie payments, such as are generally anticipated."

By Telegraph.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, November 13.—The hotel at McKenzie, on the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, was destroyed by fire at 4 a.m. to-day. A woman and four children, in whose room the fire originated, were burned to death. They were from North Carolina. The hotel was valued at $9000 and insured for $3000.

The resolution of Senator Cate to declare the seat of Mr. Senter, Speaker of the Senate, vacant, gave rise to an animated debate to-day in the Senate, and was finally indefinitely postponed; but one vote in the negative. Mr. Senter, on the resignation of Gov. Brownlow, becomes Governor. This relieves the embarrassment of the Senate.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 13.—The World says: The Cuban filibustering movement continues to excite the attention of our citizens, and it is manifest to every one that we shall soon hear of the descent of a body of adventurers on the Cuban coast, either from this port or the port of New Orleans. Yesterday a large number of recruits were obtained; and it is believed that many left last week for New Orleans, so as to take transportation from that city in vessels that will be ready for them in a few days. Col. Gibbons has his hands full, and it is certain that a great number of commissions have been issued during the last twenty four hours to officers. Over a dozen men left yesterday on the Moro Castle for Havana who carried commissions in their pockets to enlist men for service against Lersundi.

Nine thousand dollars in bills were stolen from the Mechanics' Bank, on Court street, Brooklyn, on Tuesday, by an adroit thief, who, with two confederates, entered the office about one o'clock in the afternoon. The two clerks present were engaged by two of the thieves, while the third quietly emptied the drawers near at him.

Mr. Christopher Pulman, who was murderously assaulted by ruffians on the Friday preceding election day, is recovering from the effects of the severe beating which he received.

William and Marghen Carter, brothers, from Canada, druggist clerks, while on a drunken spree yesterday morning, attacked Mr. England, managing editor of the Sun, got beaten themselves, and were arrested and held to bail.

The Cigar Manufacturers' Association yesterday agreed to pay an advance price of one dollar per thousand until the first of January next, and an additional one dollar from that time until the first of May next, provided the state of business permitted it.

Gen. Grant and family are at the Metropolitan Hotel. The General goes to West Point to-morrow, and returns Monday to spend a week

The steamers Erie and Ontario at Boston, have been purchased by Commodore Vanderbilt, and, it is said, will run between the Pacific coast and some foreign port.

Dr. Hays, the Arctic explorer, in a lecture delivered before the Geographical Society last evening, expressed utmost confidence in being able with a steamer to reach the Polar sea, and said he was willing to attempt it in the interest of science, and for the honor of the Nation. He thought the Government might be persuaded to lend the expedition a good stout ship.

It is said to be understood in lobby circles that the Broadway railroad scheme will become a law at the ensuing session of the Legislature.

The sub committee of the Congressional Committee on retrenchment continued their investigation to-day into alleged whisky frauds. Some of the principal witnesses have not yet been secured.

In the trot over the Union course to-day for $1000, Isaiah Spaulding's black mare, Rea, beat John Rogers' g N d, best three in five. Time: 2.57, 2.57 and 2.56.

The Herald's Raleigh special announces the arrival of a wagon train laden with boxes of State arms at the arsenal. The Governor disclaims anything warlike in connection therewith but is of the opinion that they, as well as the militia, are a State necessity. The arms were procured at the North, and brought to Raleigh via Newbern.

The Legislature meets next Monday, and the Governor sends in his message Tuesday. Several weighty measures, relating to internal improvements and the debts of the State, will be disposed of.

Gen. W. F. Smith has telegraphed the Captain General of Cuba that there is no truth in the rumor that he is in any way connected with the filibustering expedition fitting out for that Island. The Captain General, in his reply, begs him to assist as far as possible in discouraging such an unlawful enterprise.

A call signed by a number of distinguished clergymen and laymen of evangelical denominations in the United States, has been issued for a Convention in this city from the 17th to 20th inst., for the discussion of topics and the elucidation of views for a more free development of Christian zeal, and the rendering of the most efficient energies of the Church.

The Tribune to-day editorially urges the enfranchisement of all who are now disfranchised, because of the rebellion as well, and submits the following plan as a Constitutional amendment on the subject of naturalization: First, restrict naturalization to United States Court and Commissioner. Second, print official records of the names of all persons naturalized, with dates respectively. Third, to allow any foreigner who is now an actual resident of the United States, and expects to remain so, and has committed no crime other than rebellion or treason, and tenders a hearty adhesion to the Union, to become a citizen at any time, without exacting preliminary residence or declarations of intentions that would accord with the right of suffrage to every person who has been naturalized not less than eighteen months, and swears that he has, in the meantime, committed no crime known to our laws. Fifth, punish as felony, manufacturers of illegal certificates for naturalization, and all voting or attempt to vote by emigrants not qualified as aforesaid. The amendment would be ratified, and would be a powerful aid to Gen. Grant in securing a lasting and general peace.

SYRACUSE.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., November 13.—The Sherman House was burned to-day. Loss, $130,000; insured for $65 000.

OHIO.

YOUNGSTOWN, November 13.—Ex-Gov. David Todd, of Briar Hill, died very suddenly at seven o'clock this morning while preparing to take the train for Cleveland. Disease as yet unknown.

ST LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, November 13.—Between forty and fifty thousand dollars, in premiums, notes, and nearly all the books of the company, were stolen from the office of the Life Stock Company. Five persons have been arrested.

The Leavenworth Conservative says the Kansas Senate is unanimously Republican, and that the Lower House will have but six Democrats in it.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, November 13.—Gen. Harry T Hays says his name has been connected with the Cuban expedition story without the slightest ground. He has no knowledge of it except that gained from public prints, and cannot be induced to participate in any filibustering schemes; he has no designs upon Cuba, unless under authority of the United States Government.

Thos. E. Adams, ex-Chief of Police, died to-day.

A claim against the city for $27,000 damages during the recent riots has been presented.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, November 13.—Arrived—Forsyth, Shreve, Continental and Kellog. Departed—Belle Memphis. The river is falling rapidly, it having declined two feet since yesterday.

LOUISVILLE, November 13.—The river falling, with five feet eight inches in the canal. The weather is clear and pleasant.

CAIRO, November 13. Up—Linton, Ruth, Return 9 p.m., Emma No. 3, 1 p.m. Down—Carroll, 10 p.m.. John Kilgour, 10 a.m., Julia, 2 p.m., Romeo, 6 p.m. River rose three inches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 13.—Secretary McCulloch and Commissioner Rollins had another interview this morning on the subject of appointing supervisors. No definite conclusion regarding points of difference between these gentlemen was reached, and no appointment or nominations made to-day.

The Dyer Court of Inquiry re-assembled. Mr. Kenner, counsel for ordnance manufacturers and others who urged the accusation against Gen. Dyer, was introduced to the court. After a short session the court adjourned till Monday, to give Mr. Kenner time to examine and arrange proof for the prosecution.

BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, N. Y., November 13.—About 12 o'clock last night the cattle train of the Buffalo and Erie Railroad collided with the passenger train of the New York and Erie Railway coming into this city about a mile from the depot, where the tracks cross each other at almost right angles. The locomotive of the Buffalo and Erie train passed entirely through the baggage car of the New York and Erie train, carrying the locomotive and cars entirely off the track. Robert Decker, baggage master, had his leg broken. A large number of cattle and hogs were killed. Had the collision occurred one second later there would have been a fearful loss of life.

HAVANA.

HAVANA, November 13.—It has recently come to the knowledge of the Captain General that a band of fourteen persons had started from Havana for the purpose of creating an insurrection in Oenna, Obajs and Regni. On the 10th instant the regular police succeeded in arresting two of them at San Cristabel. Senor Augicur, a miner of Yara, who is charged with receiving arms and ammunition for the revolutionists, has been arrested, and was brought to this place yesterday by Government officials. Gen. Bolovedo has arrived at Manzanillo, where he issued a proclamation giving the revolutionists eight days to lay down their arms and cease hostilities against the government.

Sugar dull and unchanged.

CANADA.

MONTREAL, November 13.—The Episcopal Synod assembled here for the purpose of electing a Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan Canada. They have come to a dead lock with the House of Bishops. The latter persist in sending the names of gentlemen to the Synod to be balloted for who are not acceptable, and withholding the names that are acceptable. The Bishops, rather than name the only man the Synod will accept, sent down a message last night adjourning further proceedings until May next. This attempted evasion has raised a storm of indignation, and the Synod will hold another meeting today to decide whether they shall not repudiate the authority of Bishops, and elect Dr. Bath, an American clergyman, and send him home to England to be consecrated.

FOREIGN.

NEW YORK, November 13.—The Herald's Havana correspondence confirms the report that Puerto Principe had risen in revolt. Five war vessels had been ordered to depart immediately for the scene of the insurrection. A commission, in the person of Acquitria, a prominent leader of the rebels, is believed to have gone from the insurgents to Secretary Seward to urge upon him the expediency of recognizing them as belligerents. The Government authorities in Havana, are quiet about the progress of the revolt, and it is believed that they are forced to confess themselves unable to subdue the insurgents, who are supplied with arms from St. Domingo.

Miss Bismarck, the daughter of the celebrated Minister, is shortly to be married to Count Luxburg, President of the Regency in Wurzburg, Bavaria.

The Democrat's cable special says La Commune Revolutionaire, an association of French Republican refugees under the presidency of Citizen Rijal, has issued a manifesto recommending the overthrow of Louis Napoleon and the Imperial dynasty.

There are four parties in Spain who will contest the coming election, the Provisional Government, Conservative, Democratic, and Clerical parties.

The Turkish Government has made a contract with a house in Boston for the purchase of 100,000 revolving guns. The agitation in the Danubian principalities is said to be the cause of the present military preparations.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 13.—An imperial ukase fixes the time of making conscription in January. Four persons out of every thousand are to be drawn to complete the effective force of the army and navy.

LONDON, November 13.—It is officially denied that the Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Oxford are promoted to the Sees respectively of Canterbury and York.

The London Times to-day, in an article on the settlement of the Alabama claims, alludes to Secretary Seward in the following terms: The official career of Mr. Seward is now drawing to a close. To the favorable result of the late war his skill and energy are largely attributed. His foreign policy has been successful, and foreign strifes have disappeared. He must naturally wish, in common with Lord Stanley, to terminate, before retiring, a dispute, of all the details of which he is master. The convention is specially important, because at a time when national jealousy weakened confidence, it established a precedent for resorts to peace instead of war for the settlement of differences

MADRID, November 13.—The Captain-General of the Phillippine Islands will be removed by order of the Provisional Government. Gen. Prim, Secretary of War, has issued an order forbidding the attendance of armed soldiers at public meetings. The Papal Nuncio continues relations with the new government.

VIENNA, November 13.—The bill for putting the army on a war footing passed the Reichrath by a large majority.

NEW WORK, THE

SUMTER AND THE ALABAMA,

NOW in press and ready for delivery in December. This work is a record of the heroic services of an officer rendered by this gallant commander and his devoted comrades during the war between the States; and is a book of thrilling interest to all lovers of the daring, brave and true. It sells faster than any book that has been issued for years. One agent in Baltimore sold 27 copies a day for two weeks; another in Alabama took 25 copies a day his first three days; and every agent we have out reports rapid sales. Exclusive territory given to men of experience and ability. The work will be splendidly illustrated and bound. Canvassing book and outfit will cost $2 50, and parties who wish to avoid delay and secure good territory can remit with their first application, if they so desire, with instructions to return the money in case the territory is taken. MISSISSIPPI CENTRAL RAILROAD.—We learn by a dispatch from Col. Sam. Tate that the damage to the trestle-work on the above railroad has been repaired and trains are running through on time. Connections with Memphis promptly made.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT CALVARY CHURCH ON TUESDAY EVENING NEXT. We have been requested to announce to the readers of the APPEAL that the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, Rector of St. Ann's Church, New York, will hold a service for deaf mutes in Calvary Church on Tuesday next, the 17th inst., commencing at 7.30 p.m. He will, after evening prayer, deliver a lecture on the system of education in the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, now under his charge. So novel and interesting an occasion cannot fail to attract the intelligent of every denomination. Dr Gallaudet, we believe, is the son and successor of the celebrated Dr. Gallaudet, who died in 1851, after a life of much usefulness, devoted to the instruction of deaf mutes and the preparation of works for their benefit. As the Reverend successor of this celebrated savant, as well as upon his own account, we hope Dr. Gallaudet will be welcomed to our city by educators, and especially by the ministers of the several religious bodies of our city.

THE RACES.

Fifth Day of the Fall Meeting.

Grand Contests of Speed and Bottom.

The Ladies of Memphis Indorse the Course.

Wolford the Winner of the Post Stake.

Another glorious day dawned upon the racing fraternity yesterday, and all Memphis at at early hour seemed to be alive to the fact that one of the greatest races that ever came off over the Memphis Association course would be run during the afternoon. It was Friday—the "fashionable day," and so much had been said, both by the press and otherwise, about "the races"—so many days had passed and so creditably, that all the city seemed determined to visit the track. At an early hour—much earlier than on any previous occasion—the roads leading to the track were crowded with vehicles; and by the starting hour, the stands were full. The slight at the ladies' stand was especially gratifying, every seat, even to the farthest back, being occupied, and many fair visitors, unable to secure a seat, were standing.

The first race was the Post Stake, three mile heats, free for all, entrance free, $30 p. p. Association adds $1000. Entrance money to second horse; five or more to fill. The entries were as follows, and in the order as mentioned:

Richards & Kilgour enter b f Carrie Atherton, three years old, by L Kingston; dam Gypsey, by Sovereign. Colors—Silver Grey and White sash.

James Conlisk enters b h Gilroy, aged, by Lexington; dam, Magnolia by Glencoe. Colors—Blue and Blue, Orange sash.

S. Leonard enters ch m Sk ligh, four years old, by Lexington; dam by imported Glencoe. Colors—Red and White.

The horses came on the track in the best possible condition, and all looking fully up to the work that was before them, the track itself being in number one order. In the pools of the previous evening Woolford was the favorite, and Gilroy second, by odds of two to one in some instances. On the track the same was the case so far as making Woolford first, but the odds against Gilroy were much less, his stock seeming to have gone up considerably. The odds in betting, were in favor of Woolford against the field, Gilroy next choice—Carrie and Skylight being about even in the number and "backbone" of their friends. All the horses were well jockied, Atherton being ridden by John M. Clennan, a white boy well known on the turf for two years past. Gilroy was ridden by "Bobby" Swimm, Wolford by Jim Brown (colored) and Skylight by Jim Wilson.

FIRST HEAT.

In getting off Wolford had the lead, Gilroy being next, Carrie third, Skylight bringing up the rear, say two lengths behind Wolford. Not much change was made in their position up to the half mile post, first round, and there the line opened a little, Wolford still leading. After passing the half, Gilroy came up and passed Wolford, and came down the back stretch some distance ahead, passing the line thus, Wolford second, Skylight third and Carrie last. Time of the first mile, 1:50. At the half, on the second round Gilroy still led, maintaining his position under a hard pull, his rider laying back in the stirrups. Skylight began here to lag, and bets were being offered that she would be distanced, with few takers. The bay mare, before reaching the turn, shot ahead and lessened the distance between her and Wolford a couple of lengths, Gilroy leading on the back stretch and crossing the line the second mile a length ahead. Time of second mile, 1:58; first two miles, 3:48. Before the half was reached it was apparent that Skylight would be distanced, and bets two to one to that effect were refused. The position of Gilroy and Wolford on crossing the line the second time was maintained to the half mile, where Wolford rallied and made a short struggle for the lead, again falling back, however, before the home stretch was reached. On the turn Gilroy led by three lengths, which position he maintained on crossing the line, Wolford being second, Carrie third, and Skylight distanced. Time, 5:45½.

SECOND HEAT.

A good start was made on first send-off, Gilroy having pole and Carrie outside. Gilroy got the lead, which he maintained, and at the first quarter was three lengths ahead of Wolford, who was in turn about two lengths ahead of Carrie. At the turn Wolford shot ahead a little, as did Carrie, and the three horses passed the string in much closer order, Gilroy leading by about a length and a half, his rider holding him in—the time of the first mile being 1:50 At the 2½ half mile Booby, the rider of Gilroy, still seemed to be holding back, Wolford's taking things coolly, while the rider of the mare was already plying the whip and spur. On the back stretch the position was not altered, and Gilroy passed the line two lengths ahead—the mare bringing up the rear apparently very tired Time of second mile, 1:57, and of the first two miles, 3:47. As soon as the string was passed a change seemed to come over the spirit of Wolford's dreams. His rider braced himself back in his saddle and gave him a touch of the whip, and before the quarter was reached he had come up to the saddlecloths of Gilroy. His friends and backers grew very excited at this, and expressed their satisfaction in loud and prolonged cheers, which were reduplicated when, as the gallant animals reached a point opposite the stand, Wolford and Gilroy were seen struggling neck and neck, Wolford apparently leading. The odds, which had been so freely offered on Wolford at the first quarter, were now reversed, and bets dated, I deem it proper to say that I immediately upon reading the card, called at the hotel, where I was informed Landrum had left the city the night previous to the day of publication of the card.

I have known this Landrum, and knew he never was a Democrat, in Arkansas; I know also that he espoused the Confederate cause and helped to raise a company of infantry, which was incorporated with my regiment and to the command of which he aspired; but upon the men refusing to elect him he deserted and left the State, and did not return until he passed through Arkansas on his way to join the Federal command of Gen. Curtis, in the capacity of a spy, being so well disguised that I could not and did not recognize him, although he passed within thirty feet of me as I stood at the gate of my farm.

The fact that he left the city so soon after his unjustifiable and gross personal attack upon me proves him an irresponsible and cowardly poltroon. To his lucubrations I have no response to make. They belie my whole life before this community, and I would not obtrude even this much in reply, but that he made it necessary by the manner more than the method of his attack upon me. I ask, Messrs. Editors, the insertion of this as an act of justice from friend to friend, and as due me by you as some recompense for permitting the publication of Landrum's card.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE.—The M. W Grand Lodge will be convened at the Hall of South Memphis Lodge No. 118, on Sunday afternoon, 15 h inst., at 2½ o'clock, for the purpose of laying the corner stone of the Central M. E Church South, on Union street. The following Lodges are hereby requested to assemble at their halls to participate in the ceremonies: South Memphis No 118 Lelia Scott No. 289, Kilwinning No. 341, which will form the M. W. Grand Lodge; Argenona No. 168, Hamilton No. 299, will act as an escort.

Midway to the turn there was apparently a close struggle between them, and for a moment it seemed as if Gilroy had taken the lead. This, of course, elicited tremendous cheering from his friends and produced a rally in his stock, which was doomed to a sudden fall, for as the turn was made it was apparent to every one that Wolford was leading easily, while Gilroy's rider was plying whip and spur to no avail. The mare labored along the distance behind, her rider having given up all hopes of winning the race. The excitement as the horses neared the stand was tremendous, and culminated in hearty and long hurrahs when Wolford crossed the line a length ahead of Gilroy, winning the heat and the race. Time, 5:54½.

SUMMARY.

Lapp & Jackson's b h Wolford	2 1 1
Conlisk's b h Gilroy	1 2 2
Richard & Kilgour's b m Carrie Atherton	3 3 3
Leonard's Skylight	dis

Time—5:54½; 5:48½; 5:45½.

SECOND RACE.

So much time had been consumed on the first race, that the sun had nearly reached the horizon when the bell called the riders to mount for the Livery and Stable-Keeper's purse of $250, mile heats, free to all ages, with the following entries:

James Conlisk enters ch h Little Mack, five years old, by Eclipse; dam by imported Weatherbit. Colors—Blue and Blue, Orange sash.

The betting and pools were heavily for Little Mack, who on the toss, got the track, putting the Queen outside.

FIRST HEAT.

The horses got off beautifully together, and a blanket would have covered the pair up to the quarter post, which they reached in 26 seconds, Little Mack leading by a half a length. At the half scarcely any difference was discernable in their position, and on the turn Mack had not gained more than a half length on his original start. Coming down the home stretch they were right together, and Mack crossed the line only a length ahead. Time, 1:48½.

SECOND HEAT.

The betting was now ten to six on Little Mack, with plenty of takers. Time was being freely bet on also, in this heat, Little Mack being well known, and the track being in excellent condition, his time made at previous places was made the basis of the wagering of large sums. After a false start and a recall, a good start was made, both animals crossing the line together. At the first quarter the Queen was ahead, but Bobby, Mack's rider, was laying back with might and main. The first quarter was made in twenty-eight seconds. At the half Mack shot ahead again, and the two came down the third quarter almost together. Just at the turn Mack was half a length ahead, and came down the home stretch with a free rein, crossing the line, winning the heat and the race by half a length. Time, 1:50½.

SUMMARY.

Conlisk's ch. h. Little Mack	1 1
Leonard's b. f. Queen of the West	2 2

Time—1:48½; 1:50½.

On account of the lateness of the hour, the sun having sunk to rest before the last heat heat was won, the third race, for the Broom stake, was not run, but postponed until to day, it being made the first thing this afternoon.

TO-DAY'S SPORT.

will consist of four races, of which, as just announced, the Broom Stake will be first—the second being the Merchants' Purse of $400, mile heats, best three in five; third the Consolation Purse, $250, (for horses that have not won during the meeting,) $50 to the second horse. The fourth race is announced elsewhere. Races to begin promptly at one o'clock.

The very large attendance of ladies yesterday leads the Association to hope for an increased number to-day, and preparations have been made to accommodate all who may grace the stand with their presence—the accommodations yesterday being inadequate to the throng. In this connection we would remark that the gallery used by the judges and reporters is exclusively for them, and is not made either commodious or strong enough for all who wish to crowd into it. Besides, with more than five, or at farthest six, persons in it, it is impossible to work or report properly. Our friends will take the hint.

THE RACES COMMENCE TO DAY AT TWELVE O'CLOCK PRECISELY.—The races will commence this day (Saturday) at twelve o'clock noon, precisely. Five races will be run to-day, in which some of the most splendid horses in the country will be contestants. The utmost order and decorum will be preserved. Come all, and witness the finest races ever seen in Memphis. Officers of the course are respectfully requested to be at their posts at half-past eleven o'clock.

A CARD.

MEMPHIS, November 13, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Gentlemen: My attention has been called to an advertisement in your paper of this morning, signed by one James W. Landrum, making personal reflections upon my character as a gentleman and a man of honor. In this community, where I am known and have lived for the last thirty years, I feel that it is unnecessary for me to defend myself. But, as Landrum has so far imposed upon you by holding out that he was a responsible person and could be found at the Overton Hotel, where his card was dated, I deem it proper to say that I immediately upon reading the card, called at the hotel, where I was informed Landrum had left the city the night previous to the day of publication of the card.

I have known this Landrum, and knew he never was a Democrat, in Arkansas; I know also that he espoused the Confederate cause and helped to raise a company of infantry, which was incorporated with my regiment and to the command of which he aspired; but upon the men refusing to elect him he deserted and left the State, and did not return until he passed through Arkansas on his way to join the Federal command of Gen. Curtis, in the capacity of a spy, being so well disguised that I could not and did not recognize him, although he passed within thirty feet of me as I stood at the gate of my farm.

The fact that he left the city so soon after his unjustifiable and gross personal attack upon me proves him an irresponsible and cowardly poltroon. To his lucubrations I have no response to make. They belie my whole life before this community, and I would not obtrude even this much in reply, but that he made it necessary by the manner more than the method of his attack upon me. I ask, Messrs. Editors, the insertion of this as an act of justice from friend to friend, and as due me by you as some recompense for permitting the publication of Landrum's card.

FIRE AT McKENZIE.

A Lady and Four Children Burned to Death.

The following dispatch was received in this city yesterday morning. Up to the hour of going to press no further particulars had been received:

The hotel at McKenzie this morning at 3 o'clock was burned to the ground together with the adjoining buildings. The occupants of the hotel were all quietly asleep when the building was discovered to be on fire. Everything was done that could be to relieve the unfortunate families occupying rooms in the hotel, but before they could be gotten out a lady from North Carolina (name unknown) and four children were burned to death. The entire amount of furniture and effects of the hotel and of the house adjoining, were destroyed.

AN INFAMOUS SCOUNDREL.

Total Depravity Exemplified in a Radical Judge.

G. W. Waldran in an Old Role.

He Shows Himself to Be the Partner and Abettor of Thieves and Perjurers.

If there is an abysm of iniquity and moral degradation sufficiently deep to warrant the assertion that he who has reached the bottom is totally depraved, G. W. Waldran, the Judge of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, Tennessee, is a living, moving instance of total depravity. It is useless for us to call up his past career here to exemplify this assertion—it is known to every man, woman and child among us—scarcely a week passing over without our furnishing us an example of his villainy. The very latest case that has come to our knowledge is one that alone would damn him to the lowest depths of infamy, and so far as we have been able to obtain the facts are as follows:

At the last term of the Circuit Court one P. H Noakes was arraigned on three indictments of horse stealing and robbery. These indictments were three of some twelve or fourteen that were against him, and the court only tried him on one of them. He was found guilty and sentenced to ten years in the State penitentiary. He took an appeal to the Supreme Court, and before his trial came off, Waldran released him on a bond of one thousand dollars This bond was signed with the mark of two negroes, named John Smith and Tom Jones, (who, so far as this bond is concerned, have no earthly existence) Waldran filled it out himself, and did it in such a manner as to make the signers responsible for Noakes' appearance two months before it was issued, and consequently it was not of any legal value, even were the signers still living.

After the "bond" was signed it was delivered by Waldran, along with other papers, to Col. M. D. L. Stewart, the clerk of the Court, who found out the infamous transaction in this manner, and, we believe, informed the Sheriff, Col. Curry, of the fact. At any rate, by some means, the Supreme Court was informed, through the agency of Cols. Stewart and Curry, and the bond was sent from Brownsville, but Waldran got an inkling of the fact and possessed himself of the document; and though repeated efforts have been made by Col Stewart and the Supreme Bench, they have up to yesterday been unable to possess themselves of it.

This state of affairs caused an order to be sent from the Supreme Court to Col. Curry to rearrest Noakes, which order, as soon as he received, he obeyed, and lodged Noakes in jail, to await orders from the Supreme Bench. Meanwhile Sheriff Curry will to-day try and see what virtue the law will have in producing the bond.

Could anything be more infamous than the conduct of this thing, this pregture Waldran? Noakes setting aside the indictments spoken of, and the fact that he, a notorious robber and thief, is a brute of the lowest and vilest species, being also under an indictment from the grand jury for a malicious, ferocious and murderous assault upon his wife while she was confined.

DEATH OF AN EMINENT DIVINE.—The Mobile Tribune of the 10th says: Our evening edition announced in a few words the much lamented demise of Rev. Dr. Phil P. Neely, for many years pastor of the St. Francis street M. E. Church, of this city. This announcement will fall with a heavy hand upon many of our readers, who knew and loved Dr. Neely for his worth as a Christian—as a man of God without guile and without reproach. And those who did not know him in person, will not fail to bow in reverence at this holy dispensation, which has deprived the M. E. Church of perhaps its brightest light in its ministry. Dr. Neely was without exception the ablest and most eloquent divine in the State, and his fame is co-extensive with his church, and he was as much beloved for his Christian virtues as he was esteemed and honored for his powers of mind. His affection was of a purely nervous character, superinduced, perhaps, by his habits of study; and though seemingly vigorous in appearance, he only complained of nervousness, which in some way affected the heart. As we learn from those who were with him in his last illness, he calmly and peacefully died at half-past nine o'clock yesterday morning, at the residence of Mr. Ryland, near this city. Truly a great and good man has fallen. His funeral services will be held at the St Francis street Methodist Episcopal church this morning, at ten o'clock, under the direction of Rev. Doctors Burgot, Hamilton, and Dorman. The Masonic fraternity will also assist at the ceremonies.

LETTER TO GEN. GRANT.

To General Grant, President elect:

HONORED SIR: No man has ever had, in the history of this country, such an opportunity to make himself the benefactor of his race, and leave to history a name to be hallowed in the memory of ages, as is now presented to you. You have come to the great office of President of this country, after four years of wasting war, in which you form the chief figure, followed by nearly four years more of nominal peace, burdened with a course of legislation far more destructive of the country than the war that preceded, based upon the false and insulting assumption that the Southern white race are untrue to their honor and unfit to be trusted with the ordinary privileges of freemen. You know, sir, that the assumption is false. You know, sir, that the sole ground of dissatisfaction at the South is the damaging oppression and insulting course of the United States Congress since April, 1865, and not any that existed before, or that occurred during, the war. You know well, sir, that if the terms on which Generals Lee and Johnston surrendered to the arms of the United States had been observed, that instead of distraction, division and heart burnings that now afflict us, we should have peace and a rapid return to prosperity. You know, sir, that with millions of the proud descendants of the Anglo-American race, held down by the bayonet, subjected to the rule of less than one-third of their number of semi-barbarians, taxed to poverty, and degraded below the stupid negro, there can be neither peace nor prosperity in the country. Such a race of men can only be silenced by sending them to their graves. You know, sir, that all the filthy slang which has filled the Northern Journals for the last few years, charging infidelity to the Government by the whites of the South, and a readiness to engage in rebellion, is false. You have been amongst us, you have fought us, you have made your tour amongst us since the fight was over, and have borne honorable testimony concerning us, after a tour expressly to gain information on the very topics on which you made your report. And I will not believe that the Commander in-Chief and President elect of the United States can so far stultify himself as to justify and sustain a course of Congressional action based upon what is known to him as false. I will not entertain the idea for a moment. The interest of the whole country, the peace of thousands of helpless women and children, your own honor as a gentleman and a soldier, all forbid it. You have now the opportunity to be President of the United States—a thing that we have not had for some years past—with power to restore the constitution of the country, to harmonize the jarring elements of the different sections and make the country once more great and prosperous. The restoration of the rights of the South instead of a reconstruction upon a new plan, will do all that. This done, and you will find the Southern people yielding a ready and sincere obedience to the laws of the land, and rallying to the support of your administration with a firm steadfastness equal to the bravery with which they in days of yore met you on the field of battle. This much is due to the expectation of the civilized world, to the interest of humanity and justice, and to your own honor as a soldier. The writer of this opposed your election, it is true; but he did not oppose Gen. Grant or favor Mr. Seymour. He opposed only the policy here condemned, as all who heard him on the stump, or read the effusions of his pen, will testify. W.

THEATRICAL.—The New Memphis was crowded by a large and fashionable audience to witness the presentation of Old Phil's Birthday. The leading character, "Old Phil," intended to portray the most faithful honesty, and the most sensitive honor, though combined with humble position and poverty, was powerfully rendered by Mr. Coudock. The pathos of certain passages was irresistible. Many a moistened eye in the gay crowd of pleasure seekers attested the high merit of this actor—realizing the histrionic test suggested by Garrick when he said that his art consisted in uttering fiction as though it was the truth. Justice requires us to state that he was most admirably supported. Milky White, the concluding piece, though without intrinsic merit, was worked up for all that it was worth, by Mr. Coudock. We again urge our protest against the gross injustice to the management in the Friday night monopoly by our people. Unless it is amended our Theater will not be sustained.

RETURNED.—Mr. Nourse, of the well known insurance firm of Nourse & Matthews, returned home yesterday from a short visit to Niagara Falls. We welcome him home, and his many friends in Memphis will, we know, join with us in doing so.

MEMPHIS, TENN.

Tobias Wolfe, : : Proprietor.

THE proprietor takes great pleasure in announcing to his many friends and the public generally, that he has recently taken charge of the above named House. He promises by close personal attention to the business, aided by polite and efficient assistants and attendants, to insure for his guests unsurpassed accommodation and the utmost satisfaction.

The House is centrally located, convenient to Railroad, Steamboat Theater, Post-office, all the Churches, and in the most cleanly, quiet and respectable portion of the city. After thoroughly renovating, refitting and furnishing the

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCE.

Rates of exchange have become demoralized, and our banks are now working without anything like an agreement of a mutual character between them. They buy just as their necessities require them to do so, and sell in pretty much the same way at irregular rates. Eastern cotton bills are taken at par@¼c discount, and sold at ¼@½c discount, with some house anxious to sell at ¾c discount.

County Scrip is active at a further advance. The demand is speculative altogether. We quote a purchase of $5000 by a dealer at 72c, and a sale of $1000 at 73c, $3000 at 75c, as well as other small amounts varying from 75@78c.

City Bonds are steady. A sale of $5000 occurred at 63c. By private advices we learn of a sale in New York on the 9th of $100,000 at 53½c (flat.)

School Scrip is scarce. We quote nominally at 90c buying. Selling at 95c.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 133¼c, and closed at 133½c. We quote at 134@134¼c buying. Selling at 135@136c

The Commercial Bank of St. John's, Brunswick, has failed.

The late excitement in the New York money market has not, so far as we can learn, been fully explained. The causes assigned for the stringency are partly attributed to the action of speculators who contrived to obtain control of a large amount of currency, and lock it up from general circulation. The complete success of this financial combination was frustrated by the self-protecting action of the banks in using certificates for the payment of balances; by the condition of the mercantile community, which fortunately required only a comparatively limited amount of accommodations for ordinary trade purposes, and, finally, by the resolution of the Secretary of the Treasury to reissue greenbacks. It is probable that the Government will only be obliged to place a limited amount of currency in circulation, but the knowledge of the determination to resort to this action will produce a considerable effect.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market was quiet at the opening to-day, Uplands 10¾d, Orleans 11¼d. At 1:20 p.m. it was dull and tending downwards, Uplands 10⅞@10¾d, Orleans 11@11¼d, and in a few minutes it fell to 10¾d for Uplands, Orleans 11d. Sales, 10,000 bales; week's sales, 64,000, of which 15,000 was taken for export and 8000 by speculators; stock, 105,000, of which 44,000 is American; stock afloat, 291,000, of which 55,000 is American.

The New Orleans market opened quiet but steady, and closed with prices lower. Sales, 3000 bales. Middlings, 22¾@23c

The New York market opened inactive with prices unchanged in every respect. At noon holders were asking an advance but buyers were cautious, Low Middlings 23½c, Uplands 24½c, Orleans 24¾c, Good Middlings 25¾c, and at 4 p.m. was inactive with prices drooping, Low Middlings 23@23½c.

Our market was irregular, and though there was considerable looking around sales were light. There was more of a speculative demand than for some time back, but holders were not disposed to come down in their views sufficiently to justify the guerrillas to take hold. The market closed quiet but firm with considerable diversity of opinion as to value. In lieu of quotations we give sales which it will be seen bear us out in statement as to the irregularity of the market: 11 Good Ordinary, 21½c; 140 Low Middlings, 21½c, 57 and 65 at 21¾c, 14, 50 and 200 at 22c, 41 at 21¾c; 4, 2, 8, 42, 61 and 43 Middlings at 22c, 3 and 14 at 22½c, 25 at 22¾c; 19, 18 and 6 of Strict Middlings at 22¾c, 16 at 22¾c, 3 at 23½c.

TRADE.

Business was dull yesterday, and the lull was taken advantage of by a large number of our merchants to visit the races for the first time during the week. Prices are much the same as yesterday on all things, with no improvement to notice in general stocks.

The yield of sugar cane throughout some of the parishes of Louisiana is excellent. In several instances the yield is a hogshead and a quarter for the acre from stubble cane. From plant cane some have realized a hogshead and a half. All such plant cane will yield two hogsheads in the course of two weeks.

In the parish of Iberville, one of the best in the State, all the cane mills are at work. From there we hear some complaint as to the quality of the sugar, and no boasting as to the yield. But as the weather is now propitious, and as there has been sufficient frost to arrest vegetation, without in the least injuring the cane, it is probable that the quality and yield will become at once more satisfactory.

The prices of cigars in the Havana market are $500 per thousand for Celestiales, $300 for Leopoldinos, $250 for Senadores and Patriarcas, $100 for Imperiales, $60 to $75 for Regalias, $45 for Londres and $35 for Principes. The tobacco crop this year is somewhat inferior to that of 1867, the quantity is about twenty-five per cent. short of last year's produce, the price is fully twenty to twenty five per cent. dearer. Some of the fine quality of this year's crop will be finer than any produced last year, but little or none of this class has been worked yet. An extraordinary dullness has existed in the market, occasioned by the high prices asked, the supposed inferiority of the crop and the absence of orders for cigars, caused by the large stocks existing in the United States, England and Germany. The quantity of tobacco shipped from Havana since the 1st January, 1868, is about 4,600,000 pounds, of which about 2,700,000 were to the United States.

Dick King, of Santa Gertrudis, the big stock man of Western Texas, has offered to build the railroad for Lousiana from New Orleans to the Sabine, and give the carpet bag ridden State any length of time to pay for the road. The truth is, Dick King wants to find an outlet for his beeves, and sees no way of accomplishing his object but by building the railroad in question.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

We have no change to report in the weather. It continues clear and warm during the day and frosts prevail at night. The river at this point is rising, and has gone up rapidly since our last. The total rise up to last night amounted to about sixteen inches. The Ohio at Cairo is rising at the rate of one foot in twenty-four hours, and is rising to Evansville, but is falling at Louisville, with five feet eight inches in the canal. Another rise is reported at Pittsburg, with all the upper tributaries swelling. Late rains all over the North have caused floods in all the streams, and the swell coming out of the Upper Mississippi is unprecedented at this season of the year. At St. Louis the rise amounts to three feet in twenty-four hours.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. Paine, clerk of the Mollie Hambleton, left for Louisville last evening to take charge of the office of the new St. Francis.

The Dora passed down yesterday without landing.

The Commercial came in from Vicksburg with a very good trip, all things considered, and assurances from planters in the bends that they will give her a liberal support. We hope that our merchants will do likewise, and that Capt. Davis will have no occasion to regret the enterprise he has embarked in.

The Mayflower, Capt. Wm. Ashford, is the elegant United States mail packet for White river to-day. She connects at Devall's Bluff with the Little Rock Railroad and with packets for all points above. She has no superiors on the river for comfort and safety.

The Ozark, Capt. Blasdell, leaves on Monday for Pine Bluff and way points on the Arkansas. Ed Outlaw is her clerk.

The fine passenger steamer City of Alton, with Capt. Thompson on the roof, leaves at 4 p.m. to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She has splendid accommodations, and connects with the trains for points North and East. Jim White occupies her deck as gracefully as Leah makes a Pirouette.

The Des Arc, Capt. Elliott, leaves on Monday for all points on White river. She is the independent packet.

The "old reliable" Commercial, commanded by Capt. John Edson, with Messrs. Jas. Thompson and Alex Wardell in the office, is the regular Vicksburg mail packet to-day. She backs out to day at 5 p.m., and connects with the R. E. Lee for New Orleans.

The superb passenger packet Ruth, Capt. Pegram, leaves to-day for New Orleans. The Ruth is well and favorably known in this trade, and a word of commendation for her is not even necessary. She makes all way landings to the Crescent City.

The Guidon, Capt Clay Rice, will be in port to leave for Pine Bluff to-day at 5 p.m. She will ply between the mouth of White river and Pine Bluff in connection with the White River Packet Line. In her office will be found Mr. Garrett Huls, who, together with Capt. Rice, will be found reliable and efficient officers.

The City of Cairo had 200 bales of cotton for St. Louis.

Messrs. Levy & Sharpe have removed to the office, No. 291 Front street, on the corner of Madison street, up stairs. Their new office is eligibly situated and will be one of the finest in the city.

Capt. Joe Brown, of Pittsburg, is seriously ill. Fears are entertained that he will not recover.

The beautiful steamer Belle Lee, which left Louisville on Monday night, arrived yesterday a little before noon, after a somewhat tedious trip, the water in the Ohio being so scant that she had to lay by very often to wait for the Pittsburg rise to come down to her. Capt. McGill stuck to the card rates of the Louisville and New Orleans packet company in coming down, and left several large piles of freight at different landings because the shippers refused to pay said rates. They will have to come to them, however, as we learn that there will be no flinching on the part of the steamboats. The Belle Lee will doubtless take the place of the Quitman in the New Orleans and Vicksburg trade.

The Julia, Capt. Lockhart, with Andy Isaacs in the office, passed down for Vicksburg and the bends to-day.

The Argonaut, Capt. Marsh Clark, backs out on Monday for Cincinnati and way points.

Joseph Wall, coal-boat pilot, aged forty-three years, died in Pittsburg on the 8th.

Capt. Wm. F. Davidson, President of the White Collar Packet Company, and Mr. Allis, of St. Paul, are now joint owners of real estate in St. Paul, which at present valuation is easily worth the handsome sum of $200 000.

The neat and light draught steamer Emma Floyd, Capt. James Chenoweth master, leaves to day for Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati, without fail. She is a good boat in every particular, and we recommend her to the traveling and shipping public. Capt. Jim Chenoweth deserves a big trip, and we hope he will get it. Mr. Wise is clerk of the Floyd.

The Rose Franks met with an accident recently at Shreveport, where she was laying with 700 bales of cotton on board. The Southwestern says of it: "Her starboard guard gave way, precipitating into the river four tiers of cotton. The boat then careened, throwing the cotton on the larboard guard also into the river and on the bank. Probably not over two hundred bales floated off, most of which will be recovered without damage. We venture to say that Capt. White will recover the most of it and the insurance companies escape with light loss. The owners of the Rose Franks will be the greatest sufferers, in the loss of time and damage to the guard."

MEMPHIS & ARKANSAS RIVER

Packet Comp'y.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that an organization has been effected under a charter granted by the Legislature of Tennessee, November 17, 1866, entitled "Act to incorporate the Memphis and Arkansas River Packet Company," to wit:

JOHN D. ADAMS,
J. M. TEBBETTS,
JAMES LAWSON,
R. L. HAINES,
HARRISON BLASDELL, } Directors.

The Line of Boats known as the "Memphis and Arkansas River U. S. Mail Packet Company," is merged in the chartered company.

JOHN D. ADAMS, President.
J. M. TEBBETTS, Secretary.

The following boats will each make a trip a week until the new boats of the Company, now being built, are finished; leaving MEMPHIS as heretofore, on MONDAYS and THURSDAYS, at 6 o'clock p.m:

Thursday, 5th inst. W. A. Caldwell, Haines Master.

Monday, 9th inst. Steamer Ozark, Rowland, Master.

From the 1st to the 16th of November the new boats will be finished, and the Company will then run four boats from Memphis through to Fort Smith, giving direct communication with all points on the river, the Arkansas river now being in good navigable condition. Passengers and freight are put through to all points on the river without delay, and at reasonable rates.

All persons shipping freight for any point on the Arkansas river from North or East of Memphis, should have their goods consigned to JNO. D. ADAMS, Memphis. Merchandise shipped from New Orleans should be consigned to W. W. JOHNSON, Napoleon, Ark.

JNO. D. ADAMS, President.
T. A. KENDIG, Agent,

WINES AND LIQUORS.

WOLFE'S

Schiedam Schnapps.

It is now some twenty years since the proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over three thousand letters from physicians, informing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper-berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effect produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South, and Southwest are peculiarly liable—the SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
